

Lester Aldridge Welcomes Partner Sam Wylie to Bolster Real Estate Development Team

Leading law firm Lester Aldridge is thrilled to announce the addition of Sam Wylie as a Partner in the Real Estate Development team.

Sam Wylie has worked in the real estate industry since 2007, and his expertise spans a broad spectrum of property matters. He specialises in providing advice relating to the residential and commercial development of land, including option agreements, contracts conditional upon planning permission and promotion agreements. He also works with landlords to manage investment portfolios.

Sam commented on his new role: "LA has long had a strong reputation for being a market leader in offering clients a professional and value-added service. I feel my approach to law and business is well aligned to LA, and I am privileged to be joining such a fantastic firm and highly regarded team of experts."

Sam's outstanding track record has earned him a loyal following among local and regional housebuilders, commercial property developers, and property investors in the Dorset and Hampshire areas. His in-depth knowledge of the regional real estate landscape and his passion for facilitating successful business outcomes are a testament to his reputation as a trusted legal advisor.

"We are delighted to welcome Sam Wylie to the partnership," said Matthew Barrow, Managing Partner at Lester Aldridge. "Sam's experience, commercial approach and dedication to his clients make him a natural fit for our firm, and we look forward to his contributions in further enhancing our Real Estate team."

Find out more about our Real Estate services.